

STATE OF INDIANA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
INDIANAPOLIS

Executive Order

PROCLAMATION

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY COME, GREETINGS:

- WHEREAS, the world has been transformed by technology, making modern life more efficient, accessible, richer and faster; and
- WHEREAS, the modern world demands the United States have a highly-trained workforce in order to compete in the global economy; and
- WHEREAS, when done correctly, the infusion of digital learning and the effective use of technology in schools can personalize and improve student learning; and
- WHEREAS, digital learning and classroom technology can help teachers teach more effectively by providing real time data to track individual student progress, creating improved and efficient learning processes that give each student more individual instruction, and eliminating bureaucratic administrative burdens, which take time away from teaching; and
- WHEREAS, it is important that any change in learning methods and infusion of technology in schools be done in a high-quality manner to best serve every student; and
- WHEREAS, the first ever national Digital Learning Day will occur on February 1, 2012, in order to educate teachers, students, schools, parents, policymakers and the public on ways to successfully integrate high-quality digital learning and the effective use of technology;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr., Governor of the State of Indiana, do hereby proclaim February 1, 2012 as in the State of Indiana, and invite all citizens to duly note this occasion.

DIGITAL LEARNING DAY

In Testimony Whereof, I hereto set my hand and cause to be affixed the Great Seal of State. Done at the City of Indianapolis, this 20th day of January in the year of our Lord 2012 and of the Independence of the United States 236.

BY THE GOVERNOR:

M E Daniels Jr.
